

Matthew Dean Hindman

Department of Political Science
University of Tulsa
800 South Tucker Drive
Tulsa, OK 74104
matt-hindman@utulsa.edu

ACADEMIC APPOINTMENTS

2013-present Assistant Professor of Political Science, University of Tulsa
2012-2013 Visiting Assistant Professor of Political Science, Linfield College

EDUCATION

Ph.D. University of Minnesota-Twin Cities, Political Science (2013)
M.A. Illinois State University, Politics and Government (2006)
B.A. Illinois State University, Politics and Government (Magna Cum Laude, 2004)

PUBLICATIONS

Book

Political Advocacy and Its Interested Citizens: Neoliberalism, Postpluralism, and LGBT Organizations,
Philadelphia: University of Pennsylvania Press, 2019.

Journal Articles

“Promiscuity of the Past: Neoliberalism and Gay Sexuality Pre- and Post-AIDS,” Politics, Groups, & Identities, forthcoming.

“Reinventing Pluralism: Consensus, Hegemony, and the Politics of Affirmation,” New Political Science 39:1 (March 2017), pp. 17-35.

With Bernard Tamas. “Ballot Access Laws and the Decline of American Third-Parties,” Election Law Journal 13:2 (June 2014), pp. 260-276.

“Rethinking Intersectionality: Towards an Understanding of Discursive Marginalization,” New Political Science 33:2 (June 2011), pp. 189-210.

Reference

“Endean, Steve,” American National Biography. New York: Oxford University Press, 2018.

“Interest Groups and Inequality in the United States,” in Oxford Bibliographies in Political Science, Ed. Sandy Maisel. New York: Oxford University Press, (April 2017).

Book Reviews

Review of Punishment, Participatory Democracy, and the Jury, Albert Dzur, Law and Politics Book Review 23:8 (2013), pp. 393-396.

Review of Queer Mobilizations: LGBT Activists Confront the Law, Mary Bernstein, et. al., eds., Law and Politics Book Review, 21:1 (2011), pp. 22-25.

WORKS IN PROGRESS & UNDER REVIEW

With M. David Forrest. “Looking Beyond the Pluralist Heaven: Voice and Conflict in the Interest Group System,” in preparation.

“Populism and Citizenship: Toward a ‘Thickening’ of American Populism,” under review as part of edited volume titled Mapping Populism.

With Andrew Noland. “Neoliberalism in U.S. Politics,” Oxford Bibliographies in Political Science (contract signed Nov. 2017).

JOURNALISM & POPULAR PRESS

With Bernard Tamas. “The U.S has more third-party candidates than it’s seen in a decade. Why?” The Monkey Cage (Aug. 31, 2016)

“Here’s one simple way to minimize the chaos at the Republican National Convention,” The Monkey Cage (Apr. 14, 2016)

“Yuge Differences: Why Sanders and Trump are Not Alike,” CounterPunch (Feb. 19, 2016)

“How Citizens United Has Changed the Political Landscape,” Tulsa World (Jan. 21, 2015)

COURSES TAUGHT

At University of Tulsa (2013-present)

FS 1973: Higher Education & Its Critics (3 times)

“First Seminar” course exploring the mission(s) of higher education and the challenges facing today’s college students, professors, and administrators.

POL 2363: Understanding American Politics (5 times)
Overview of the American political system, including an exploration of the Constitution, the three branches of government, civil liberties, and civil rights.

POL 2423: Gender & Sexuality in U.S. Politics (2 times)
Interdisciplinary overview of key concepts and controversies regarding issues of gender and sexuality as they relate to American politics.

POL 3213: American Political Parties & Ideologies (4 times)
Course exploring the functions of political parties in the United States and the development of American conceptions of freedom.

POL 3293: Inequalities in American Democracy (3 times)
Course exploring how inequalities associated with class and race impact the functioning of American politics and American society.

POL 3373: Interests, Identities, & Money in U.S. Politics (3 times)
Course exploring the “pluralist” approach to politics and the ways that money impacts contemporary American politics.

POL 4073: The American Presidency (4 times)
Course exploring the historical development of presidential power in the United States, including contemporary controversies over the uses (and abuses) of these powers.

At Linfield College (2012-2013)

POLS 201: American Politics (2 times)
Introductory course exploring the institutions and ideas central to the functioning of American democracy.

POLS 230: Research Methods
Introduction to methodological approaches to political research, emphasizing the basics of statistical analysis.

POLS 330: Politics & the Arts—The Wire
Course exploring themes of race, poverty governance, inequality, and incarceration using HBO’s The Wire as one of the course’s primary texts.

POLS 365: Topics in American Politics—Parties & Interest Groups
Course exploring the power and influence wielded by organized groups active within the American political system.

At University of MN-Twin Cities (2010)

POL 3235W: Democracy and Citizenship
Survey of the history of democratic thought and introduction to contemporary challenges to democratic theory, including issues of race, gender, sexuality, and inequality.

CONFERENCE PAPERS

“Populist Citizenship: Toward a ‘Thicker’ American Populism,” presented at the New Directions on American Populism workshop at Arizona State University-West, March 2018.

“Acting Up in a Time of Crisis: ACT UP and the Limits of an Interested Citizenry,” presented at the Annual Conference of the Western Political Science Association, March 2016.

M. David Forrest and Matthew D. Hindman, “It’s Time to Get Over the Pluralist Heaven: Voice and Conflict in the Interest Group System,” presented at the Annual Conference of the American Political Science Association, Sept. 2015.

“‘Promiscuity of the Past’: Gay Advocacy Pre- and Post-AIDS,” presented at the Annual Conference of the American Political Science Association, August 2014.

“Exploring the Constitutive Impact of Political Advocacy Upon Democratic Citizenship,” presented at the Annual Conference of the Western Political Science Association, April 2014.

“‘Promiscuity of the Past’: AIDS Advocacy and the Making of ‘Deserving’ Subjects,” presented at the Annual Conference of the Western Political Science Association, March 2013.

“From Christopher Street to K Street: LGBT Advocacy During the Long 1970s,” presented at the Annual Conference of the Western Political Science Association, March 2012.

“LGBT’s Pre-History: Democratic Inclusion and Homophile Citizenship Before Stonewall,” presented at the Annual Conference of the Western Political Science Association, April 2011.

“A Liberal Consensus or Hegemonic Politics? Assessing Pluralist Theory in a Post-Schattschneiderian Age,” presented at the Annual Conference of the Western Political Science Association, April 2010.

“Locating the Intersection or Representing the Margins? Assessing Intersectionality’s Emergence in the Social Sciences,” presented at the Annual Conference of the Western Political Science Association, March 2009.

Bernard Tamas and Matthew D. Hindman, “Has the Prohibition of Fusion Really Hurt Third Parties?” presented at the Annual Conference of the Midwest Political Science Association, April 2008.

Bernard Tamas and Matthew D. Hindman, “Have State Election Laws Really Hurt Third Parties?” presented at the Annual Conference of the Midwest Political Science Association, April 2007.

Bernard Tamas, Matthew D. Hindman, and Amalia Monroe, “Ballot Access Laws and the Two-Phase Decline of American Third Parties,” presented at the Annual Conference of the Midwest Political Science Association, April 2006.

ACADEMIC AWARDS, GRANTS, & DISTINCTIONS

2018	Thomas H. Buckley Award for Teaching Excellence (University of Tulsa)
2015	Faculty Development Summer Research Fellowship (University of Tulsa)
2014	Faculty Development Summer Research Fellowship (University of Tulsa)
2011-2012	Political Science Departmental Dissertation Fellowship
2011	University of Minnesota Graduate Research Partnership Program (GRPP) Summer Fellowship
2006-2010	University of Minnesota Dept. of Political Science Summer Fellowship
2006	Illinois State University Charter Department Outstanding Graduate Student Award
2004	Thomas More Scholarship in Political Theory
2000-2004	Illinois State University Presidential Scholarship with Full Tuition Waiver

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS & SERVICE

Member of the American Political Science Association (APSA): 2011-present

Section Memberships: New Political Science; Sexuality & Politics

Member of the Western Political Science Association (WPSA): 2009-present

Member of the University of Tulsa Women and Gender Studies Governing Board (2016-present)

Manuscript Reviewer for:

Election Law Journal

Mobilization

Oxford Encyclopedia of LGBT Politics and Policy

Politics, Groups & Identities

Political Research Quarterly (3x)

PS: Political Science & Politics

Social Sciences

Chair/Discussant for the Western Political Science Association annual meeting (5 years)

Panels: “Queer Approaches to the Study of Politics” (2018); “Political Theory in Trans
Perspective” & “Legal & Qualitative” (2017); “Morality Criminality and Violence in Sexuality Discourse” (2016); “Group Mobilization in US Policy Making” (2015);
“LGBTQ Politics and Activism” (2014)

Section Chair of Southern Political Science Association’s LGBT Politics section (2019)

DEPARTMENTAL & UNIVERSITY SERVICE

Directed 6 University of Tulsa Senior Projects (2014-present)

Supervised 1 University of Tulsa Internship project (2017)

Faculty Advisor for:

Pi Sigma Alpha (2014-2018)

College Republicans (2017-present)

Women’s Work (2018-present)

Common Sense Action (2014-2015)

Organizer of University of Tulsa “Pizza & Politics” Film Series (2014-present)

Pre-Law Advisor (2018-present)
 Hiring Committee, 20th Century US and World History, TU Dept. of History (2018-2019)
 Political Theory Faculty Recruitment Committee (2014-2015)
 Tulsa University Learning Assessment Project participant (2014-2017)
 TU College of Arts & Sciences Curriculum Committee (2017-present)
 TU College of Arts & Sciences Traffic and Parking Committee (2016-present)
 TU College of Arts & Sciences Student Course Evaluations Committee (2015-present)

INVITED TALKS & APPEARANCES

Panelist for “The University and Free Speech,” hosted by U-Tulsa’s Women’s and Gender Studies Program and Public Radio Tulsa (March 2018)
 Panelist for “Forbidden: Undocumented and Queer in Rural America,” hosted by U-Tulsa Law’s ImmLaw (Immigration Law Society) and OutLaws (LGBTQ) student groups (Oct. 2017)
 Panelist and organizer of Presidential Debate Recap at U-Tulsa (Sept. 2016)
 Invited speaker at TU Kappa Delta workshop on the 2016 election (Sept. 2016)
 In-studio analyst for KJRH primary election coverage (Feb. 2016)
 Speaker at TU Common Sense Action inaugural event (Fall 2015)
 Panelist for “Marriage Equality: What It Means for Oklahoma,” panel by TU Pride (2014)
 “Organizing for LGBT Rights in the United States,” lecture to Willamette University political science students (2013)
 “Interest Group Citizenship,” presentation to Linfield College Sociology & Anthropology “Voices” Seminar (2012)
 Panelist for Presidential Debate Recap at Linfield College (2012)
 Panelist for Linfield College Pizza & Politics Event (2012)

METHODOLOGICAL & PROFESSIONAL TRAINING

UMN Polisci Teaching Conference	Summer 2014
GRAD 8101: Preparing Future Faculty	Fall 2010
SOC 8890: Historical Sociology (audit)	Spring 2010
UMN Qualitative Methodologies workshop	Spring 2010
POL 8126: Qualitative Methods	Fall 2008
POL 8125: Dynamic Analysis	Spring 2008
POL 8160: Maximum Likelihood Estimation	Fall 2007
POL 8123: Intro to Quantitative Political Research	Spring 2007